MPS. N. C. MILLER.

Of Port Wayne, Ind., writes on Nov. 20, 1964; I was afflicted for forty years with hear trouble and suffered untold agony. I had weak, hungry spells, and my heart would palpitate so hard, the pain would be so neute and torturing, that I became so weak and nervous I could not sleep. I was treated by several physicians without relief and gav up ever being well again. About two years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Remedies. One bottle of the Heart Cure stopped all beart troubles and the Restorative Nervine did the rest, and now I sleep soundly and at-tend to my household and social duties without any trouble.
